

Assignment 2 – Signifiers and Mapping

This tab affords pulling. The upwards facing part of the tab is a signifier to the affordance of grabbing. This design better suggests where a user would be able to grasp the tab and peel it off easily. The shape also suggesting an arrow infers that it can be pulled upwards or towards the user.